When The Re-Fi Dance Comes To An End, Will You Have Any Partners Left?

What Other's Have To Say...

"As a direct result of our Debra Jones Realtor event that we hosted in June 2011, my loan officers had a more than 50% increase in their loan production. This is my third time to host one of her events and it has easily paid for itself in increased volume. I would highly recommend her services to anyone who wants to increase their business."

Adam Huddleston, President Integrity Home Mortgage Virginia

Last year one of the nation's largest banks...

Sent Debra to cities all across the country doing her Realtor Events on their behalf.

Why? Because they work!

A Debra Jones Realtor Event
Will Keep You Engaged In Your
Realtor Community
While You're "Office Bound"
Working Re-Fi's

If you're like most lenders, you're really busy right now.

CAREFUL...Don't fall victim to the Catch 22

of the mortgage business

When re-fi business is strong, you neglect your Realtor base. When re-fi's drop off, you're then left scrambling to try to make up the volume with purchase business, only by then, the Realtors don't want to talk to you because they haven't heard from you in ages.

Sound familiar? Don't let this happen to you. Now's the time for your company to sponsor a Realtor Event for Debra Jones to come to your city. You'll be glad you did.

How Will This Benefit You?

- Debra's six-week promotional system, used to drive the event, will elevate your field presence with Realtors
- Kill two birds with one stone loan officers get a sales refresher while at the same time providing a phenomenal sales & marketing program for their Realtors
- Prevents your competition from getting a foothold with your agents while you've been too busy to call on them
- Provides you with STRONG momentum that will drive purchase business through the entire summer buying season.

Who Is Debra Jones?
